NOT MAN BUT MONEY

Real Struggle Before the Republican Convention.

GOLD IS ALMOST SURE TO WIN.

Radical Silver Men May Bolt and Walk Out of the Convention Hall.

THEIR NUMBER NOT LARGE.

Less Than Fifty Delegates in All Out of a Total of Over Nine Hundred Are Expected to Leave the Convention Hall.

The Silverites Seem Divided as to What Is Best For Them to Do—The Vice President Situation Remains Unchanged. The A. P. A. Has Demanded Planks in the Platform, but Are Not Opposing Any Individual—At McKinley's Home.

ST. LOUIS, June 16.—On the eve of the 10th national convention of the Republican party St. Louis resembles a bride decked for the coming of her liege lord. The buildings flamo with buntings, the windows are adorned with pictures of the various candidates, the air beats with the pulsating of martial music as parading clubs go sweeping by, the streets surgo with people borne along in resistless streams, while the hotel corridors are choked with a jostling, pushing mass of humanity.

It is estimated 75,000 strangers are the guests of the Monard City. The Southern and the Planters' hotels, where the headquarters of the principal delegations are located, are thronged to the doors. Bands play in the rotundas and keep the crowds that push their way up and down the broad marble stair cases until they seem to creak under their burdens in a good humor while delegations meet and leaders confer behind closed doors as to the final details.

ARRIVAL OF THE LAST DELEGATE.

The most remarkable feature about the convention so far has been the absence of bad blood among the partisans of the various candidates. The triumph of McKinley has been so complete thus far that his friends can afford to be magnanimous and his opponents can do nothing but acquiesce in the ascertained will of the majority. The partisans of Reed, Quay, Morton and Allison still wear their buttons and are as staunch as ever in their loyalty, but they realize the helplessness of shrieking or of offensive demonstrations in favor of their champion, and the managers of the anti-McKinley candidates have practically sheathed their swords.

This does not mean that they have abandoned the field, with the exception of Governor Bradley of Kentucky, who dropped out Sunday night. The names of the other candidates will be presented and voted for, and will probably poll their full strength. Indeed, the Reed men have labored assiduously to rally their followers to the Maine man. They have appealed to his friends to go down with colors flying. So, too, with the followers of Morton, Allison and Quay. But no one ventures to suggest the possibility of McKinley's defeat.

The real struggle that is going on is over the financial plank in the platform. Around it all interest centers. Beyond the disputes in the various delegations over the supremacy of men and factions it is almost the sole subject of plots and counter-plots. It is the real battleground. In phrase and word it is all important. Upon tariff, upon all other questions there is substantial unity, but the differences upon it are as wide as the continent. Free silver and gold are as irreconcilable as the poles and the radical silver men are prepared to stake their all upon the issue. Knowing they can not succeed they are even now formulating the manifesto that will sever their allegiance to the Republican party. But these radical silver men are largely outnumbered. Headed by Senator Teller of Colorado they have only mustered five states and perhaps one territory—less than 50 delegates in all, out of a total of over 900.

The real struggle is between those in favor of a gold declaration for the maintenance of a gold standard except through an international agreement and those whose friendliness to silver, although opposed to free coinage, makes them seek to avoid a specific endorsement of the gold standard. The result of the meeting of the various state delegations demonstrated emphatically that the convention will not dodge the issue nor equivocate in language. Twenty-eight states, comprising the territory east of the Mississippi and almost the entire south, elected members of the resolutions committee, and instructed them to vote for a gold declaration. Wisconsin, Minnesota, Nebraska, Oregon and Washington also took strong grounds for gold.

In Indiana General Lew Wallace was chosen a member of the resolutions committee after he had declared that he would not stand on the Indiana plank, and that the utterances for the maintenance of the gold standard could not be made too strong for him. Minnesota, with her 18 votes, instructed ex-Governor Merriam to insist upon a declaration of the gold standard. Michigan and several of the northwestern states, notably Iowa and the Dakotas and several of the southern states, Georgia, Mississippi and Louisiana, announced their opposition to free coinage, but did not favor a too radical declaration in favor of the gold standard. Iowa was particularly solicitous and feared that it might carry the northwest into the Democratic camp in case the Chicago convention pronounced later for silver.

The eastern delegates are overjoyed at the outcome, and believe that the result of this action removes the last uncertainty as to the character of the financial plank.

The exact language of the plank has not yet been drawn. Mark Hanna, to whom all eyes are turned, and to whom all are agreed belongs the distinction of being the dominating power in the convention, has had many planks presented to him, but all mean practically the same thing, the maintenance of the gold standard until an international agreement can be reached and unalterable position to free coinage.

Coupled with these declarations will be undoubtedly a declaration in favor of such use of silver as the needs of commerce demand, but not beyond the point where the maintenance of the parity would be endangered. Senator-elect Foraker of Ohio, who is to be chairman of the committee on resolutions, has prepared a rough draft of a platform covering most of the subjects to be presented, and this will furnish the basis for the work of constructing the platform.

The selection by the various state delegations of their membership on the committees was not marked by sensational incidents save in New York and Missouri. In New York all the smoldering bitterness between the Platt and anti-Platt factions broke forth and ex-Senator Warner Miller, the head of the anti-Platt faction, threw down the gage of defiance to the New York leader. He made a ringing speech in which he spurned the leadership of a man who declared that McKinley was unfit for the presidency and moved to depose him by making Chauncey M. Depew chairman of the delegation. There were hot words on both sides. Thurlow Weed Barnes denounced the Herkimer statesman who had been instructed for Morton, as a traitor. The anti-Platt faction polled 17 out of the 70 votes in the delegation voting, and Mr. Platt was re-elected chairman.

In the Missouri delegation Chauncey I. Filley, who for many years had been the Missouri representative on the national committee, was defeated in his ambition to again be a national committeeman, and Richard Kerns was selected. This is the outcome of a long struggle for supremacy.

The situation as to the vice presidency continues indefinite. Opinion does not seem to crystallize. The talk of Hobart of New Jersey, Lippett of Rhode Island, Evans of Tennessee, goes on, but does not seem to be regarded seriously. There was a strong belief early in the day that perhaps the New York delegation could agree on some one who would be satisfactory to both factions, and there was a renewed discussion of Governor Morton and ex-Secretary of the Navy Tracy, but when the factions declared war to the hilt all idea of New York furnishing the tail of the ticket was abandoned.

Although the Maine delegation is not advertising the fact, it is almost certain that they will present the name of ex-Governor Cleaves. Representative Dingley of Maine, who was spoken of, does not covet the honor. There is still a lingering hope among a vast number of the delegates that Speaker Reed will be nominated by a spontaneous outburst in the convention, and, if he is, they do not believe he could decline any more than Logan could in 1884, or Hendricks and Thurman could when they were placed on the Democratic tickets in 1884 and 1888, respectively.

MONEY PLANK.

One Has Been Agreed Upon Which Will Probably Be Adopted.

ST. LOUIS, June 16.—The money plank of the platform has been agreed upon. It is a victory for the middle west, but is perfectly satisfactory to the extreme west. The New England contingent, headed by Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, and backed by the Platt and Quay forces in New York and Pennsylvania, urged the adoption of a short emphatic declaration, as follows: "We favor a maintenance of the existing gold standard, and are opposed to the free coinage except by agreement for bimetalism with the leading commercial nations of the world."

The leaders in the middle-west states, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Nebraska, were equally strong in their insistence upon a declaration that would not be open to the charge of equivocation. Michigan, Iowa and South Dakota, three of these states, stood out against a declaration favoring in terms the present gold standard. They rather favored something distinctively friendly to silver while affirming their opposition to free coinage under existing circumstances.

The leaders in the middle-west offered the following as their idea of a financial plank in the platform:

"The Republican party is unreservedly for sound money. It caused the enactment of the law providing for the redemption of specie payment in 1879; since then, every dollar has been as good as gold. We are unalterably opposed to every measure calculated to debase our currency or impair the credit of our country. We are therefore, opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver except by international agreement, which we favor, and until such agreement can be obtained, the existing gold standard should be preserved. We favor the use of silver as currency but to the extent only that its parity with gold can be maintained, and we favor all measures designed to maintain inviolably the money of the United States whether coin or paper, the standard of the most enlightened nations of the earth."

This plank was submitted to Senator Lodge and other eastern men as a substitute for the plank prepared by them and has been accepted by them as completely satisfactory. This, it is believed, ends the long fight over the financial plank of the platform.

THE SILVER MEN.

Some of the Delegates Will Bolt If a Gold Standard Is Adopted.

ST. LOUIS, June 16.—The delegates from the silver states have again postponed their meeting and it is now uncertain whether a joint conference of the delegates from the different states will be held until after the committee on resolutions acts upon the platform.

The change of plan is due to the fact that some difference of opinion has been developed in some of the states as to the most advisable course to be pursued. In some instances there is a division as to the wisdom of a bolt whatever the platform may be. This fact was brought out at the meetings held in the different delegations. It is believed that it may yet be possible to secure an understanding upon which the delegates may act together, though it is conceded that this is not altogether probable. The division exists in the Montana and Utah delegations. The Montana delegation is evenly divided with Senator Mantle heading the wing favorable to walking out of the convention, and Senator Carter heading the forces opposed to this action, there being three delegates on each side.

This subject formed the basis of quite a stormy scene at the meeting of the delegation. Senator Carter advanced the idea that the silver men could be just as effective by uttering a strong protest against the adoption of a gold plank and still remaining in the convention, while Senator Mantle contended that the only course left to the silver men was to leave the convention in case it should decide upon a course so antagonistic to their belief as would be the adoption of a gold standard declaration.

In Utah there is a majority favorable to a bolt. Senator Brown, who did not stand with the other senators from the silver producing states on their antagonism to the Dingley tariff bill, will not bolt. One other member of the delegation may stand with him, but the other delegates will walk out of the convention in case of the adoption of a declaration for gold monometallism.

The Colorado and Idaho delegations are solid for a bolt.

A. P. A. IN THE CONVENTION.

They Will Ask That Certain Planks Be Inserted in the Platform.

ST. LOUIS, June 16.—The members of the American Protective association will ask the national convention to recognize them to the extent of inserting a plank in the platform which, after conceding to all the utmost freedom in the exercise of the right to worship God according to the dictates of their own conscience, will declare for the restriction of immigration to the extent of excluding all undesirable persons; for changes in the naturalization laws and their administration so as to prevent unfit persons from becoming citizens; for one general nonsectarian free public school system; no public aid of any character to be given to any other schools, and that all appropriations of public money or property shall be solely for public institutions and for the benefit of every class of the people, to be disbursed by responsible public officials.

There is a large sprinkling of members of the A. P. A. in the convention, but they are making no opposition to the nomination of McKinley, as was at one time predicted they would.

McKinley Not Disturbed.

CANTON, O., June 16.—Governor McKinley passed a very quiet day. There were no out of town visitors of note and no occurrences to attract particular attention. From the Associated Press reports furnish by a loop in his residence he received the full news of the convention. But it was not of a nature to engross him to the extent of giving up a morning drive of an hour or so with Mrs. McKinley. Nor was he so deeply interested as to keep close to the instrument. At almost any hour except during a little shower, he could be seen on the veranda of his home or promenading on the payment in front.

Morton For Second Place.

ST. LOUIS, June 16.—As a result of much telegraphic negotiations between St. Louis and Albany it is definitely stated on what is believed to be good authority that Governor Morton has finally yielded to the solicitations of his friends and has agreed to accept the vice presidential nomination—despite the split in the New York delegation he is now to be vigorously pressed for the nomination.

Colored Delegates Massmeeting.

ST. LOUIS, June 16.—A number of the colored delegates to the convention and their friends had a massmeeting in the First Baptist church last night. The only interesting thing done was to adopt unanimously a resolution that the colored delegates were for a gold standard plank in the platform and would not vote for a candidate who did not represent such a sentiment. Ex-Congressman Blair made an address upon educational topics.

CONFERENCE WITH COLORED DELEGATES.

MORE BONDS.

They Will Be Issued If Necessary to Maintain the Gold Reserve.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The adoption by the St. Louis convention of a "sound money" platform, the authorities here believe, will tend to allay the fear of a financial crisis which has been threatened by the increased silver sentiment in the west and south.

There is considerable apprehension that the good effect which may follow the action of the St. Louis convention will be more than offset by the probable outcome of the Chicago convention. The president and Secretary Carlisle are fully alive to the seriousness of the situation. It is stated upon high authority that the president will lose no time in making known his intention to issue more bonds for the maintenance of the gold reserve as soon as there is any sign of a proposed raid. It is also stated that the president has no intention of calling an extra session of congress to avert a financial crisis. If anything of the kind is threatened as a result of a declaration for free silver by the Chicago convention he will take immediate steps to check it by issuing bonds.

The fact that the senate passed a resolution prohibiting him from issuing any more bonds will in no way deter him from adopting such a course should the necessity demand.

DRIVEN FROM THEIR WORK.

Trouble Feared at Amherst, O., and the Militia May Be Called Out.

AMHERST, O., June 16.—Early yesterday morning over 1,000 striking quarrymen from Berea, Westview and other places, headed by a band, marched into Amherst and held a large massmeeting. There were only about 150 men at work there. After the meeting the strikers started for the quarries and drove everybody from work and took full possession.

All of the Cleveland Stone company's quarries here are tied up, as well as those at Berea and Westview. Violence is feared and it is expected that the governor will be asked to call out the militia. The mayor has ordered all saloons closed and 75 deputy sheriffs have been sworn in.

NEW MEXICO DEMOCRATS.

Free Coinage of Silver and Bland Endorsed For President.

LAS VEGAS, N. M., June 16.—The Territorial Democratic convention met yesterday afternoon and adopted resolutions favoring free and unlimited coinage of both silver and gold independent of the action of foreign nations at the ratio of 16 to 1 as the same existed prior to the demonetization by the Republican party in 1873.

Richard P. Bland of Missouri was endorsed for president.

The delegates chosen were: Anthony Joseph, Taos county; M. M. Salazar, Colfax; M. T. Jones, San Miguel; John Y. Howitt, Lincoln; W. S. Hopewell, Sierra; Demetrio Chavez, Dona Ana county.

Veils are one of the most ancient of articles of dress. They were used so long ago that their origin is lost in remoteness.

TRAGEDY IN A BANK

The President Shot By a Would-Be Assassin.

HE THEN SHOOTED HIMSELF.

A Demand Made For Ten Thousand Dollars Which Was Not Complied With. Both Men Perhaps Fatally Injured—The Bank President Makes a Statement, but the Shooter Would Not Talk.

NEW YORK, June 16.—President George H. Wickoff of the Bank of New Amsterdam was shot in the abdomen as he sat at his desk in the bank office yesterday by a man who is said to be George T. Clark. The would-be assassin then turned the pistol on himself and fired two shots both of which took effect. Both men are perhaps fatally injured.

The bank of New Amsterdam is in the Metropolitan Opera House at Broadway and Thirty-eighth streets. Mr. Wickoff was alone in his office when Clark entered the bank. He walked into the front of the bank, turned down the corridor, and passing the clerks behind the wicket, without a word, went straight up to the president's door. The door was ajar, he passed through and closed it behind him.

He advanced politely to Mr. Wickoff's desk and laid a letter before him. It was a demand for $10,000. Mr. Wickoff refused to comply and Clark drew a pistol. Mr. Wickoff jumped to disarm the man, who fired immediately, the ball entering Mr. Wickoff's abdomen. Before the startled clerks could enter the president's room Clark turned the pistol and fired two bullets into his own body and fell to the floor.

Mr. Wickoff staggered into the corridor, told the clerks to send for his wife and his friend Mr. Tilford, who is vice president of the bank, and fell. Both men were taken to the hospital where Mr. Wickoff made an anti-mortem statement in substance as here told. Clark absolutely refused to make any statement and would not give his name and address or his occupation. He said that he needed money and had been out of employment for one week. He claimed that he had no particular motive other than that of getting money for the support of his wife and boy.

He said: "I had never seen the bank president before and did not know him. He had never done me nor any member of my family any wrong. I did not mean to harm him, but when refused the demand that I made, I meant suicide. I hope that he may recover. If my wife should identify me, I will not be laid in the potter's field. I have been here about 15 years. I was born in the west. There can be no defamatory statements against this man as he is of too high a standing. I believe partially in religion. There was only one life I wanted to take and that was mine."

The letter presented by Clark was found on Mr. Wickoff's desk, it was written on note paper of the Hotel Marlborough and read as follows:

"We want $6,000, five $1,000 bills, 10 one hundred dollar bills.

"I will shoot you if you make a false move, so be careful. My partner outside has you covered. If you alarm within three minutes after I have left he will throw a stick of dynamite through the front entrance. Put money in an envelope.

"Don't talk."

There was no signature. Whether there was really an accomplice or not is not known. The police do not know Clark. Neither had any of the bank employees ever seen him about the bank. His real identity is a mystery and every effort is being made to identify him. The accepted theory is that he was crazy.

The shooting created great excitement in the bank and on Broadway. In a few minutes all Wall street, a mile and a half away knew it, and wild rumors were afloat there. One was that the would-be assassin was a bank officer, but this was quickly denied.

The attempt of Norcross to kill Russell Sage was recalled and intensified the excitement. The bank officers were quickly upon the scene, and in a short while every arrangement was perfected for any emergency.

President Wickoff has apartments in the Chelsea flats and also a home in Mont Clair, N. J., where his wife and two married daughters live. One is the wife of W. R. Brinkerhoff of the New York County bank.

Bondsman Settles.

IRONTON, O., June 16.—The bondsman of M. G. Clay, the defaulting treasurer of Lawrence county, have settled the deficit caused by his embezzlement by paying into the city, county and school board treasuries $14,298.90. The settlement was made on the 50 cent basis, Clay's shortage being $28,597.80. All suits entered against his bondsman will be withdrawn. The defaulting treasurer is now serving a five-year sentence in the Ohio penitentiary.

GALLIPOLIS, O., June 16.—Fire destroyed the residence of William Kraft, located two miles from here. Kraft lost everything and two children narrowly escaped. A defective flue caused the fire. Kraft lost all his crops two weeks ago by a storm.

Andree Sails For Spitzbergen.

TROMSØ, Norway, June 16.—Herr S. A. Andree of Stockholm, who proposes to make an attempt to reach the North Pole by balloon, has sailed for Spitzbergen where the embarkation takes place.

A REPUBLICAN National convention couldn't get along very well without Bradley. The Governor has gone to St.
Louis.

The "gold barons" will control the Republican convention at St. Louis this week, and the indications are growing stronger that they will be overwhelmed
by the free silver tide next November.

The indications now point to a square,
out-and-out fight in the coming Presidential campaign between the gold barons and silverites. Lots of Republicans will be lined up with the silverites and against their party nominee.

GOVERNOR BRADLEY was afraid the

THE FINANCIAL QUESTION.

Rev. E. B. Calkins Replies to Some of the Ledger's Statements on the Subject.

Editor Bulletin: The Ledger of last Saturday
gives its readers a column, double headed,
in rebuttal of the historic citations I made in my former article on finances, with the astounding
result, "Non Sequitur."

To allay his editorial fears and to calm the rising tide of his anti-silverism indignation,
let me advise him to look well to the "bosom
of his pants" while riding his lony hobby,
the splinted and spavined nag Major McKinleyism, yeocept "a protective tariff." Though this has been the political god to which the Ledger has offered incense for the past two years, it will not about the same figure as a political issue in the St. Louis convention, as the Ledger's presidential candidate, Gov. W. O. Bradley, who came into power the accident of Democratic contention.

But to our contention, the free coinage of silver on the basis of 16 to 1, as the first step in righting a great wrong; the enthronement of it as money, from which it was dethroned in 1873.
A prudent regard for definition would save
from a war of words.

Money is a medium of exchange; it is not a measure or standard of values. "The more service the medium of exchange, the harder it is to obtain it, the less demand for articles of production, and hence the lower the price. The articles of value are those that sustain life or administer to life. Money is a medium of exchange not the medium of exchange, for one article may be exchanged for another without a medium of exchange; the comparative value of each is determined by the time or skill required
in their production.

Money, "the standard of value," "sound money" are misleading. They are the words in the speech of the juggling political syster. In fact money in any true system of finance, a system based on absolute justice, fulfills its highest function, which is its only function, unless perverted from its legitimate function by vicious legislation, when it officiates as a medium of exchange.

The authority of the State creates money.
This authority may be in one, a few, or many,
according to the character of the State. Prior to 1873, and reaching back to the beginning of the nation, gold and silver coins in the ratio of 16 to 1 was the money of the country. Their money value was not based on either intrinsic or commercial value, but upon an arbitrary or a fiat declaration, fixing the unit, the dollar, in so many grains of gold or silver. These gold and silver coins were not promises to pay, they were payment in exchange of values.

Another fact. Prior to 1873, all gold and silver of a certain fineness, whether in coin or bullion, was money. If uncoined, a certain weight, in grains, fixed by governmental fiat, was the dollar
unit, and was a medium of exchange of values.
That at some time, some where and some how,
a change was wrought, at least in the case of silver, is evident in this, for years the coined value and the bullion value have not been the same. Once they were equal; now they are unequal as a medium of exchange. This is the one irrefutable proof that silver is not now money, and that it has not been since 1873. I challenge you for the proof that it is money. Your table of the coinage, the increased coinage of silver;
that a silver dollar will buy as much as a gold dollar, proves nothing in this contention. I can buy as much with a check on Mitchell, Finch & Co. as you can buy with either gold or silver coins.

One would think the villainy of the financial brigands had reached its high tide of infamy in the funding scheme, in legislative act approved July 11th, 1870, whereby the bonds were made payable in coin; bonds that had not cost the holders more than sixty cents on the dollar. The casual observer utterly failed to comprehend the enormity of that crime, and never was there a more adroitly laid plot to reduce the people to abject and hopeless servitude. The plot and the devil hand of the plotter were more clearly seen when the plot went on to the next act in the drama of enslaving the masses, in the theft of the people's money, and the consequent contraction of the currency by the demonetization of silver money. Mark you, this refunding of the bonded, untaxed, interest-bearing debt is a calamity upon the people, for it has placed the burden beyond the control of the generation that created it. We have already paid interest enough to have twice paid the debt, and yet

to-day it is twice the burden upon the people that it was at the close of the war.

After thirty years of financial legislative bungling, no provision has been made for the payment of the National debt, but several times a puppet Executive has increased the debt at the bidding of his masters, the gold plutocrats. They do not want the bonds paid; they will plot and scheme that they shall not be paid, for these are the standing reminder of the people's vassalage.

Go on, my countrymen, and continue in power
those who have so successfully played the drama, a Financial Conspiracy Against the Liberties of the Masses, ending with the farce, "How Easy It Is to Fool the People;" go on, I repeat, and continue in power the gold trust created at the mandate of England, and another generation of fawning subservient, a kissing the tyrant's hand that rivets your shackles, and the spirit of our sires
will be broken; those sires who dared to say,
"one thing is more to be dreaded than the sword,
it is slavery."

This final word for the present. You say, "a Nation can no more have two standards of value for its money than a merchant can have two yard-sticks of different lengths." Neighbor, this will fool no one but he who can't distinguish shadow from substance, or who mistakes loyalty
to his party for patriotism.

A merchant can have two yard-sticks of the same length, one of ebony, the other hickory, or one yard-stick, one half of ebony the other half of hickory. A nation may have, for this nation has had prior to '73, her money, her medium of exchange, of two metals gold and silver, on a fixed ratio of value. Money never was, and is not now, a "standard of value;" that is your standing fallacy. E. B. CALKINS.

A Great Book Free!

When Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., published the first edition of his great work, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, he announced that after 680,000 copies had been sold at the regular price, $1.50 per copy, the profit on which would repay him for the great amount of labor and money expended in producing it, he would distribute the next half million free. As this number of copies has already been sold, he is now giving away, absolutely free, 500,000 copies of this most complete, interesting and valuable common sense medical work ever published—the recipients only being required to mail to him, at above address, twenty-one (21) one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, and the book will be sent post paid. It is a veritable medical library, complete in one volume. Contains 1008 pages, profusely illustrated. The Pocket Edition is precisely the same as that sold at $1.50 except only that the books are in strong mailla covers instead of cloth. Send now before all are given

TUITION FREE.

An Excellent Opportunity For Some Energetic Young Men.

[Acts of General Assembly, approved May 9, 1893.]
CHAPTER 198.

Sec. 11. Each legislative district in the State shall, in consideration of the incomes accruing to the college under "an act for the benefit of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Kentucky," approved April 29, 1880, be entitled to select and to send to said college each year one properly prepared student, free from all charges
for tuition, matriculation fees, room-rent, fuel and lights, and to have all the advantages and privileges of the college and dormitories free, except board. Said students shall be entitled, free of any cost whatever, to the benefits enumerated above, for the term of years necessary to complete the course of study in which he or she ma-tricularates for graduation or during good behavior. All beneficiaries of the State who continue students for one consecutive collegiate year,
or ten months, unless unavoidably prevented,
shall also be entitled to their necessary traveling expenses in going to and returning from said college. The selection of said beneficiaries shall be made by the superintendents of common schools in their respective counties, upon competitive examination on subjects prepared by the faculty of the college, and transmitted to said superintendents before the first day of June
of each year: provided, that no standard of admission adopted by the college for admission into the academy shall exclude from the benefits of this act county appointees who have completed the course of study prescribed by law for the common schools of the Commonwealth. (Said competitive examination shall be open to all persons between the ages of fourteen and twenty-four years. Preference shall be given, other things being equal, to those who have passed with credit through the public school,
persons of energy and industry, whose means are small, to aid whom in obtaining a good education this provision is intended. If any representative district contains more than one county,
each county so included shall be entitled to select one beneficiary as aforesaid. Said competitive examination shall be held, and the successful competitor appointed, between the first day of June and the first day of August of each year.
It shall be the duty of the county superintendent to make known the benefits of this provision to each common school district under his superintendency, with the time and place when and where such competitive examination shall be held.
He shall, for this purpose, appoint a board of examiners, whose duty it shall be to conduct the examination.)

Sec. 15. In addition to the foregoing, teachers

Sure to Win.

The people recognize and appreciate real merit. That is why Hood's Sarsaparilla has the largest sales in the world. Merit in medicine means the power to cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures—absolutely, permanently cures. It is the one true blood purifier. Its superior merit is an established fact, and merit wins.

Hood's Pills are easy to take, easy to operate.
Cure indigestion, headache.

There is no improvement in Mrs. Dr.
Adamson's condition.

Merit Talks

"Merit talks" the intrinsic value of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Merit in medicine means the power to cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses actual and unequalled curative power and therefore it has true merit. When you buy Hood's Sarsaparilla, and take it according to directions, to purify your blood, or cure any of the many blood diseases, you are morally certain to receive benefit.
The power to cure is there. You are not trying an experiment. It will make your blood pure, rich and nourishing, and thus drive out the germs of disease, strengthen the nerves and build up the whole system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the best, in fact—the One True Blood Purifier.
Prepared only by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

BOND HILLS COMING.

Hiberger Will be Here With Them Thursday and Friday to Get Revenge.

The Bond Hills of Cincinnati will come up Thursday for two games of ball with the Maysvilles. They will play Thursday and Friday afternoon.

The Bond Hills are well up in front in the Enquirer League race at Cincinnati, and are among the best amateur teams of that city. Their star pitcher is Hiberger who was with the Maysvilles a short time this season. He pitched against the Shamrocks at Cincinnati Sunday, the leaders in the Enquirer League, and struck out eight of them.

The games Thursday and Friday will be worth seeing, and there should be a big crowd out.

VERY IMPORTANT,

Are These Decisions of the Kentucky Court of Appeals Rendered Last Saturday.

FRANKFORT, Ky., June 13.—The Court of Appeals decided to-day that Mayor Todd, of Louisville, could not remove the members of the Board of Public Works and Board of Safety of that city without cause, and without first giving them a hearing or trial before the Board of Aldermen. Mayor Tyler appointed these two boards before his death, and Mayor Todd, who succeeded him, wanted to replace the old members of the boards with new ones, without giving any reason therefor or according the members a trial or hearing. The decision is a very important one, as it allows all the present force of firemen and policemen, who are Democrats, to remain in office.

The Court also decided what is called the "Louisville Park bond case," and declared the bonds about to be issued ($1,000,000) would be invalid, because at the election held to take the sense of the voters as to whether bonds should be issued or not, only 9,000 votes were cast for and against the proposed issue, while for the various candidates at the general election the same day over 32,000 votes were cast. The court says the act which provides that two-thirds of those voting shall be cast in favor of the bonds in order to carry the proposition, does not mean two-thirds of those voting on the bond question alone, but two-thirds of all those voting that day, and therefore under said election no valid bonds can be issued.

A case similar to this was also decided in the same way, involving an issue of bonds for the city of Owensboro.

STRIKE THREATENED

Thousands of Tailors to Go Out in New York.

THE FIGHT OF THEIR LIVES.

If the Strikers Lose the Sweat Shop System Will Be Firmly Established—If They Win, They Believe That the Contractors Will Give Up the Fight For All Time—July 1 It Will Begin.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Twenty thousand persons will be idle on July 1 on the East Side. This announcement is confidently made by the leaders of the Brotherhood of Tailors, who expect on that date to enter upon the fight of their lives against the sweating system. If they lose, the system will be firmly established. If they win, they believe that the contractors will give up the fight for all time.

The opening gun in the fight was fired Sunday afternoon at a meeting of the brotherhood in New Prospect hall. Fully 3,000 tailors were present, and speeches were made by Charles F. Reichers, Henry White, Meyer Schoenfeld, Benjamin Schweitzer, A. Tintenfass and H. Salomon. Meetings will be held two or three times a week until July 1 to prepare for the strike.

The tailors declare that the old "sweating" or "task system," although abolished two years ago by a strike, is in full swing in many shops again. Wages, which ranged from $9 to $10 a week, have been reduced almost 50 per cent, and the "task system" has been introduced.

"Finishers," who a few months ago finished 35 coats a day are now compelled to do 48 coats before they receive one day's pay. Other contractors, it is said, refuse to employ any but newly arrived immigrants, whom they pay about $3 a week.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Major General Dimond of San Francisco, former superintendent of the mint there and a member of Governor Budd's staff, is at the point of death at the Gilsey House. It is announced by his physicians and his son that they have very little hope of his recovery.

General Dimond came to this city from San Francisco four days ago accompanied by his son, two nurses and physicians, en route to Europe to consult specialists, but his condition became so much worse that the trip was abandoned.

Woman Missing.

DELAWARE, O., June 16.—Mrs. Mayne Schaaf, 24, disappeared from her home in the northern part of this county last Tuesday night. She took with her a shawlstrap and dresses. Her father, Peter Bartlett, and her husband, William Schaaf, have searched all the northern part of the county without getting a single trace of her. She left two small children. Temporary insanity is the alleged cause of Mrs. Schaaf's disappearance and suicide is feared.

Big Damage Suit Contemplated.

COLUMBUS, O., June 16.—General Thomas E. Powell, who was attorney general for A. J. White, the New York manufacturer of Paskola, in the recent investigation of the food and dairy commission of the state, said that a suit for damages against Dr. McNeal, the commissioner; Dr. Sterritt, Amos J. Dye, the attorney, and others in the department would be brought within a few days in the courts here. The suit will be for $200,000.

Bad Place to Set Down.

FRANKFORT, Ind., June 16.—Joseph Moore, while under the influence of whisky, sat down on the Lake Erie railroad track, near Mulberry, and was knocked off by a freight engine, sustaining injuries that will probably prove fatal. About six years ago his brother, Samuel Moore, while intoxicated, was run over by a Lake Erie train and killed not 75 yards from the spot where Joe met with the accident.

Grief Results in Suicide.

CANTON, O., June 16.—Miss Elma Anthony, 30, residing 10 miles east of this city, committed suicide yesterday by shooting herself through the head. Her father was killed several months ago by a fall on the ice, and it is thought that grief over the accident, worry concerning property and overwork caused temporary insanity.

Beecher's Son in Trouble.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Henry Barton Beecher, son of Henry Ward Beecher, was placed on trial yesterday for forgery on an indictment found a year ago. It is charged that he forged the application of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad for indemnity insurance and collected large commissions thereon.

Shot Himself.

FOSTORIA, O., June 16.—Mrs. John Collins shot herself in the forehead with a 32-caliber revolver. The ball glanced and she lives. She is young and was recently married, and was accused of alienating the affections of another woman's husband.

THE TRIUMPH OF LOVE

"HAPPY, FRUITFUL MARRIAGE." Every Man Who Would Know the Grand Truths, the Plain Facts, the New Discoveries of Medical Science as Applied to Married Life, Who Would Atone for Past Errors and Avoid Future Pitfalls, Should Secure the Wonderful Little Book Called "Complete Manhood, and How to Attain It."

Here at last is information from a high medical source that most men wonder with this generation of men. The book fully describes a method by which to attain full vigor and manly power. A method by which to end all unnatural strains on the system.

To cure nervousness, lack of self-control, dependency, etc. To exchange a faded and worn nature for one of brightness, buoyancy and power. To cure forever effects of excesses, overwork, worry, etc. To give full strength, development, and tone to every portion and organ of the body. Age no barrier. Failure impossible. Two thousand references.

The book is purely medical and scientific, useless to curiosity seekers, invaluable to men who need it. A despairing man, who had applied to us, soon after wrote:

"Well, I tell you that first day is one I'll never forget. I just bubbled with joy. I wanted to hug everybody and tell them my old self had died yesterday, and my new self was born to-day. Why didn't you tell me when I first wrote that I would find it this way?"

And another thus: "If you dumped a cart load of gold at my feet it would not bring such gladness into my life as your method has done." Write to the EHE MEDICAL COMPANY, Buffalo, N. Y., and ask for the little book called "COMPLETE MANHOOD." Refer to this paper, and the company promises to send the book, in sealed envelope, without any money, and entirely free, until it is well introduced.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxatives or other remedies are not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be recommended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, then one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

Fruit, Fruit.

The Fruit season of 1896 is close at hand and I have perfected arrangements with some of the largest and most successful Fruit growers of the Ohio River hills to handle their entire crop of Strawberries, Raspberries, Blackberries, Peaches, Etc.

This fruit is grown on the elevated lands, principally in Lewis County, by growers of long experience, and will be much superior to any grown on the low or flat lands. It will be received by express and placed on the market here on the same day it is gathered, and will be furnished to dealers and consumers in first-class condition. Special prices always given to dealers, so as to enable them to sell at same prices I sell to consumers and make fair profits.
